WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 25, 1933

We have all heard of that famous pro-

The conflict which, before it came, had been declared by wise men to be "irrepressible" opened at last, and the curtain was raised on a scene of evil strife, unequalled in bitterness since the world began. Freedom and slavery, as representative principles, stood more distinctly opposed than ever before on earth. The spirits of Good and Evil were never more antagonistic than these, and though at the beginning the actors were more or less disguised, the fearful tornado of war soon swept away all that was light and useless, and the two principles stood confronting one another, Freedom panoplied in the awful grandeur of an arch angel, and its antithesis terrible and threatening, majestic but malignant, like Lucifer after his fall. Again, as once before in Heaven, according to apocryphal writings, have the adversaries of Truth tried their unavailing strength against forces that are eternal and cannot be overthrown, and again, as then, broken, vanquished, but still desperate in disaster, they stand on the toppling battlements of treason, which sink beneath them, looking down into the abyssal depth of inlamey which must engulf them. And the starry banner, emblematic of that harmony they attempted to destroy, floats triumphant over the storm clouds of war, which have spent their wrath, and are rolling gloomily away aglare with lightnings that only have terrors and vengeful bolts for unrelenting traitors.

A custom is now becoming general in Paris for the workman to take a cup of coffee as soon as he rises, his breakfast at 11¹/₂ or 12, and his dinner at home with his family after leaving work at 5¹/₂ or 6 o'clock.

The Mormon chiefs are indignant because they cannot obtain a State government.

The Territory claims to have 100,000 inhabitants, yet, according to the report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for 1923, she paid into the United States Treasury the paltry sum of $2500, while Nebraska with only 35,000 inhabitants paid more than double that sum Oregon with a population of less than 75,000 paid in 1923, $61,300 of internal revenue.

The amount collected in Utah was paid back out of the U. S. Treasury, five times over, in the shape of appropriations to support the territorial government. Even Washington Territory, remote and difficult of access, with only some 15,000 inhabitants, paid over $8,000 of internal revenue. $6,000 more than Utah, while poverty-stricken and miserable New Mexico, plundered by Apaches and rebels alike, paid $9,300. Nevada, just admitted into the Union, paid $23,000, nearly ten times as much as Utah.

These facts are mentioned in view of the claim so regularly demanded by Utah for admission as a state.

Nevada was admitted into the Union as she deserved to be.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

Eighty bags of the California overland mail, which had accumulated here, were dispatched by the isthmus route on the steamer Ocean Queen. This matter was sent west to Kansas and some of it to Julesburg, but as the Indians practically hold five hundred miles of the plains, the mails were returned to this city. It is thought that regular communication will not be resumed before June.

Gen. Terry has force enough to reduce Wilmington, while Sherman, with additional troops at his command, can walk through South Carolina.

Washington, Jan. 23d.

In the Senate, Lane, from the Military Committee, reported adversely on the petition of the Oregon Legislature asking for the establishment of an armor and arsenal in that State. Report was agreed to.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled That no negotiation for terms of settlement, or concession, or compromise, be entered into, proposed, yielded or made with the rebels, directly or indirectly.

shall be secured and the supremacy of the Constitution and laws be established over the entire territory of the United States as heretofore claimed.

The Senate has ratified the treaty with the northwestern bands of Shoshone Indians, establishing peace, etc. The several bands stipulating hostilities and all depredations upon emigrant trains, mail and telegraph lines and on citizens of the United States within their country shall cease.

New York, Jan. 23d.

ignorant of the situation

The Herald's special says, it is believed here that the pressure of the peace party South is evidently the numerous and powerful will that the rebel government entertains to any proposition which may be made for a negotiation, even if not coupled with the condition of a recognition of the Confederate

A letter from Plymouth, N. C., says the rebels launched a new ram at Halifax, putting her in a fighting condition and our forces are preparing for an attack. A barricade and dam have been thrown across the river, half a mile above Plymouth. The ram Albemarle is to be raised and made serviceable.

and refers to Davis' statement that two-thirds of the able-bodied men are at home, and complains that the commissary department can't feed their army while the Federal forces can march anywhere and find plenty to eat, and say the greatest necessity of all is to make Lee commander-in-chief, and consider it the only thing to save them from annihilation.

Washington, Jan. 23d.

New York, Jan. 24th.

A party of rebel cavalry made their appearance in front of the Union pickets near Newbern, N. C. on the night of the 14th inst., and during their stay some of them deserted to the Union lines, and on the discovery of this the remainder fell back and were pursued to near Kingston by a detachment of the 12th N. Y. cavalry. Rebel deserters are continually coming in.

The Richmond Enquirer, of the 20th says, the silence in the rebel War Department concerning the events current in the South, indicate the fact that an important movement is in progress. If Wilmington falls there will be no panic though much sorrow for the inhabitants. The idea that there is an immense amount of cotton stored there is of attractive influence, to say nothing of the port as a base, which is now alluring invaders toward it. There is a combination in the matter which involves Charleston. Sherman is no fool in the matter, and if these places fall, it will be after the exhibition of much strategy. Sherman is always at it, and we hope our army is also. Sherman's feints are, in fact, realities, for while he is aiming at various places, meaning to take all, it hardly matters with him which he takes first.

Cairo, Jan. 23d.

Cairo, Jan. 23d.

Forrest is reported as concentrating his forces at Houston, Miss., with a view of making a raid into Memphis. On the 21st, a detachment of troops from Memphis crossed the river and attacked a band of guerrillas at Mound City, killing and wounding two, and capturing five without the loss of a man. The expedition is still in pursuit of the guerrillas.

A private letter from Pascagoula, La., a recent date, states that Granger's forces have fallen back for the present within the limits of the town, the reason the storm having become so bad as to render it impossible to transport supplies to the position formerly held by them.

Mr John Taylor said that the of those who were to be cut off from the church would be read. If a man Latter Day Saint be must live his religion - if he does not, we don't want him. If there are any who sympathize with those we are going to cut off they'd better go along with them to the We profess to believe in the law of God, and to be governed by it. We truly the elect of God. We stand high and holy places. There are thousands of prayers ascending daily to Brigham Young, his counsellors and priesthood. It is with us the kingdom of God or nothing. [Read names of missionaries for Sandwich Islands and Europe, among them was John Young, Jr. Cut off seven from the church for refusing to pay tithing - about fifty for apostasy.] They are gone by for us to be destroyed by wicked and designing men. Nobody has power to interfere with us. We don't wish to interfere with these Josephites. They have a right to do and do just what they please, so long as they don't violate the laws of the land. Uncle Sam has been making some territories out of portions of Utah. One of them is called Montana. By taking a fine-tooth comb you might scrape together a few inhabitants on it (laughter). He wants more states to come into the Union. What did I say? (Laughter.) I mean the confusion (laughter). They don't want us to come into the confusion (more laughter). We would not consider it a favor to come in. There are some who do not like to have us free freedom; but they can't help themselves. There is not that political freedom existing anywhere in the United States that there is in Utah. There Abraham can put his finger on the telegraph wire and cause men to be arrested and put in prison without a trial. But he can put men in prison here without a trial (loud amens). We know our rights and we dare maintain them. They have confiscated books in free missions, but published in the South, which is dangerous to circulate. But thank God we have got freedom of speech and freedom of the press here (loud amens). When the United States denigrate the Constitution we will rally to its support (amens). If other men will bow down and become serfs we will not. The United States government is the best government under heaven. If it was administered right. But the laws of the nation have become corrupt. When they destroy the Constitution we will rally to its support, and what they have neglected we will carry out in all its beauty. I'm pleased to hear Brigham, yesterday talking of converting bayonets into pruning hooks. Disunion will prevail. This nation will be dissolved; Other nations will be broken up. Some folks may call this treason (laughter). Let's help it. The priests of the North are praying that the rebels may be destroyed. The priests of the South are praying for their liberty, and that the men of the North may be destroyed (laughter), at the same time they are murdering, fighting and killing, and moving each other to hell (much laughter). Washington and Richmond are impure fountains, sending forth corrupt influences. They are going to have a railroad from one of these days, and some of these people want to introduce their civilization among us. This Josephite organ will go to the hill! It is so very kind, so generous so very generous (laughter). Of course we believe them, but we don't follow their favors. They are getting up the gold stories, trying to introduce a population to corrupt and destroy us. Corrupt men just like thousands, low vanities. These schemes were all concocted at Washington - the plans were laid there.

We will not follow them, their plans will fail, they won't break us up. It will be did. (laughter.) They are at war with the Kingdom of God, and don't know it. We are going to Jackson county in these days, (laughter) and we are going in a decent manner, (encore laughter.) We are the best people in the world. This kingdom will never be overcome. Everything that is brought against us will be broken. The United States broken and never will be mended. The nation will never recover again. Never! I have said in my heart a hundred times. "God bless Queen Victoria" (a voice, amen.) She has power over the poor devils in our work. After the women will all be left, and we will have to go after them. They will cut each other all off, they are bound to it, (laughter) they will use knives, daggers, spades and pitchforks, in doing so. (Much laughter.)

Local Matters.

BILLY SHEPPARD.—We are always ready to make corrections. So far as we are informed, our notice of the unappreciative conduct on the part of Billy Sheppard, the Ethiopian delineator, in yesterday's paper was erroneous and unjust. Having made diligent inquiry respecting him and his deportment towards those with whom he has been immediately associated, we learn that false statements and gross misrepresentations have been made. We are happy to be assured that such is the case. Billy, Van Nest and Cooke go on a "starring tour," through the northern settlements for a few days, and we cheerfully recommend them to the kind patronage of the public. They are performers of the first class and have but few equals in their profession.

Messrs. ROSENBAUM & NEWMAN have associated with them, as a co-partner in the meat business, Mr. Chas. Hopper. The firm is now, Rosenbaum & Co.

The rapid increase in their business, has induced them to open a branch market in our Camp. This we pronounce as a capital thought and plan. We need not request that the patronage of our Camp people may be extended, as the name of this firm is already familiar to all, and the choice meats for which they are noted, have been long ere this fully appreciated.

Some either mischievous, or grossly slovenly person in the rear of the officer's quarters, yesterday threw a vessel of soap-suds into the main water channel, thereby rendering the branch passing the men's quarters unfit for use. Whoever committed the above act deserves to be severely handled.

We observe in the list of cases brought before the Police court in San Francisco recently, the name of "Samuel Bickner." Wonder if the last name is not a typographical error?

JOHN S. Myers, late a Sergeant in Co. "C," 3d Inf., C. V., has been commissioned by Gov. Low, as 2d Lieut. in Capt. Tardy's Co. of the 8th Regt. Cal. Inf.

Private A. Pierce of Co. A. 31 Inf. Batt., C. V., while in town on Tuesday evening, had two blankets stolen from the sleigh in which he had been riding.

Our Camp Thrasher was well filled on Monday evening last. The "Union Varieties," as usual, performed well.

Wood is becoming a scarce commodity in this Camp—not a very agreeable prospect in such freezing times as these.

SUPERINTENDENCY OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., January 25, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given that under an order of the President of the United States, dated October 3rd, 1861, the "Entire portion of the Valley of the Utah River within Utah Territory, extending on both sides of said river to the crest of the first range of mountains on each side," was directed to be set apart as an Indian Reservation.

That by the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved May 5th, 1864, (see chapter 77 of the laws of 1864, pamphlet ed., page 43) the Utah Valley Reservation is "set apart for the permanent settlement and exclusive occupation of such of the different tribes of Indians of Utah Territory as may be induced to inhabit the same."

Therefore, notice is hereby given under instructions of the Department of the Interior transmitted to me through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, "That all white settlers must forthwith remove from the Utah Reservation," and that on the opening of spring "all persons found therein unlawfully," "that is, without a license to trade, a passport, or permission of the proper authorities, will be removed," and that the laws of the United States, applicable to Indian Reservations, will be enforced.

A STORY OF A WOMAN'S LIFE—Considerable consternation has prevailed for some weeks past in a most distinguished family, one of their beautiful and accomplished daughters, whose talent in private theatricals is well known, having determined to drop her rank and adopt the profession of the stage. Family meetings, family arguments, family threats have been of no avail; even to the point where she is accepted by the inspired young actress, but a recent member of the family has at length suggested a crowning impediment, and every member of the family agrees to sign a declaration of lunacy against her and place her in a safe retreat for the rest of her life. Three days are given the young lady for consideration, at the end of which she must either make a solemn vow never to go on the stage or consent to be immured in a private mad house.—London Court Journal.

GEN. SCOTT ON TREASON.—In Gen. Scott's memoirs, written by himself, and just published, speaking of the acquittal of Aaron Burr on trial for treason, he says: "This is to be regretted; not that the thirst for blood was not slaked on the occasion, but because there never having been an execution in the United States for the highest of crimes, our people were, in 1812 and 1861, still untaught a most needful lesson—that playing at treason is a dangerous game! Hence, to threaten treason has become an ordinary party device in nominating Presidents, and in factious debates on the floor of Congress; hence malice in 1832-'33, and hence the mighty rebellion."

THE GREAT SANITARY FAIR.—The net profits of the Philadelphia Sanitary Fair, held last June, have been computed, and found to amount to a million and ten thousand dollars, with some money to be added from property not yet realized in cash. The net proceeds of the Sanitary Fair in New York, amounts to one million one hundred and eighty thousand dollars. The Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Metropolitan Fair, New York, reports that he has paid over to the Sanitary Commission one million one hundred and eighty thousand dollars, as the proceeds of that Fair.

"HAVE you relatives in the army?" "Second Lieutenant of a lady sitting in the car beside him." "Yes, sir." "From what state?" "Illinois," replied the lady. "Ah, yes; Illinois (patronizingly) has sent some fine troops, ma'am. Your husband wears a strap, I presume?" "Yes, sir." "May I inquire his name?" "I am acquainted with a good many brother officers there." "Certainly, sir, Ulysses S. Grant." [Exit Lieutenant for the smoking car.]

Coal, in large quantities, is daily landed at Stockton. It is extracted from the Mount Diablo.
